UPDATE - FEB. 1, 2018 ROUNDTABLE ON DOC CANCELLED

Council Hearing on DOC, Feb. 15, 2018

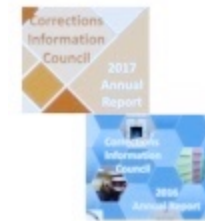

The Committee on the Judiciary & Public Safety has cancelled the Public Oversight Roundtable on the DC Department of Corrections (DOC) on Thursday, February 1, 2018. Anyone wishing to testify about the DOC may testify at the DOC Performance Hearing on February 15, 2018. Contact the Committee via email at judiciary@dccouncil.us or at (202) 727-8232 for more information.

The CIC has published reports on its observations and monitoring of DOC in 2016 and 2017, both of which can be found here. The 2017 CIC Report on DOC has been updated to include FY2017 information received from DOC on Jan. 19, 2018. Meanwhile, if you have any information you would like to share about the conditions,

CIC Annual Reports 2016 and 2017

In addition to its DOC reports, the CIC has published annual reports for its first two years as an independent agency, 2016 and 2017. These annual reports can be found here and on the CIC website, cic.dc.gov. Check out the CIC's overview and observations of the DOC and Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) over the past two years, as well as the activities, events, and operations of the CIC.

CIC TO INSPECT USP ATWATER

As part of its mandate to inspect Federal Bureau of Prisons (FBOP) facilities housing incarcerated DC residents, the DC Corrections Information Council (CIC) will conduct an onsite inspection of USP Atwater, a high security men's prison in Atwater, California, on February 21-22, 2018. USP Atwater has 33 men who were convicted of DC Criminal code offenses. We urge you to contact us if you have any information you'd like to share regarding this facility.
